SECTORAL MEETING OF THE CONSULTATION TASK FORCE ON RECONCILIATION MECHANISMS

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Consultation Task Force on Reconciliation Mechanisms invites your organization to make submissions at a meeting with the Task Force on the 28th of June 2016 at

Sri Lanka Foundation, 100, Sri Lanka Foundation Avenue, Colombo 7

For time allocation, please see attached page.

The Consultation Task Force on Reconciliation Mechanisms, appointed by the Prime Minister on the 26th of January 2016, is tasked with consulting members of the public on the processes and mechanisms for reconciliation in Sri Lanka to seek truth and justice, ensure accountability for human rights violations and provide measures for redress.

The Government has indicated that it is considering the following mechanisms to achieve this:

- An Office of Missing Persons;
- A Truth, Justice, Reconciliation and Non-Recurrence Commission;
- A Judicial Mechanism with a Special Counsel;
- An Office of Reparations;
- Or any other structures, processes or measures that emerge from the consultations.

The Task Force will hold several sectoral meetings to ensure that major national-level actors participate in the consultation process.

Please see attached page for details on how to make submissions at the sectoral meeting.

Please respond by email to this letter, indicating;

- 1) Your willingness to participate in the Consultation on the 28th of June 2016
 - 2) The size of the delegation (not exceeding 3 persons)
 - 3) The language of your submission
- We encourage you to bring with you a written submission.

Please confirm your participation via the following email address or telephone number:

ctf.srilanka@gmail.com, +94115920029

Yours sincerely,

Manouri Muttetuwegama

Chairperson,

Consultation Task Force on Reconciliation Mechanisms

INFORMATION AND GUIDELINES

The submissions should focus on reconciliation mechanisms.

Submissions can address:

- a) One or more of the mechanisms outlined above (including but not limited to the mandate of each mechanism, composition, types of violations to be covered, tasks to be performed)
- b) Alternative structures, processes or measures to address a specific violation or multiple violations or other relevant issues (including but not limited to mandate, composition, types of violations to be covered and tasks to be performed).

Your organisation will be allotted 20 minutes to make a submission and for the Task Force to make any follow-up inquiries.

Submissions can be made in Sinhala, Tamil or English.

The sectoral meeting will be open to the public, including media. Therefore please indicate if you would like your submission to be confidential so that the Task Force can make the necessary arrangements.
